

TEN OF CUPS (2015)

It's night, I don't know the time it could be twelve, it could be five and I'm writing under the candle light

The night is long, even when it's not cold
I can't sleep, I'm all alone sitting inside this big shelter stone.

I hear a sound, my heart beats.
I hear a mouse coming near and near
I'm afraid and I can sense his fear.

All I do is think of you.
I miss you, I need you,
And I didn't want to.

All our full moons, our rituals, our fire
The house boat filled with love and desire turning the cold winter into warm, sharing the galley.

I wanted to be alone, but I couldn't say no
I let this feeling grow and grow
(by) making of you my whole world.

Like milk in the darkness I was laying for you
Like a bond that is break less, believing in you

Our days were passing calm and clear
I couldn't wait to get home and have you near.
If I was feeling this happy, why should I fear?

Talking until late, breakfast in bed
Making love and living in the world we created
The grasshopper, the dog, the shows we've watched and made.

Nothing to argue or discuss about
You called me "princesa", smiling around
We built a castle in clouds that only we could reach out.

Like milk in the darkness I was living in the shadows to be light for you.
Like a dream that is endless I was closing my eyes to see nothing but you.

The winter passed and the changes begun
We opened all windows, one by one
Letting the light go where it shouldn't come.

The questions and the doubts started to appear
Your jealousy and anger made me fear
I was calling for you but you couldn't hear.

Trapped again in the cage I didn't wanted to be Following your path and forgetting about me
Looking for myself, all I could see was "we".

Like milk in the darkness once again I want to live
Like a soul that is hurtless, only give love and receive.
